A NEW MAYSVILLE AUTHOR.

"The Man from Maysville" has made good again. Mr. John Fleming Pogue of Cincinnati, a native and former resident of Maysville and a brother of Mr. Henry E. Pogue of this city, is the author of a beautiful literary work inscribed to his mother, entitled, "The Philosophy of Living, Which is Loving." The volume is a very neat example of the printer's art and is from the press of a Cincinnati house. One thousand copies of the first edition have been printed and another edition will soon be published. The pretty volume is evidence that the author has more than the ordinary ability, and his inspirations will all bear many readings. The contents are poems and semi-religious and moral essays, which breathe the spirit of one who loves humanity and makes an eloquent plea for the dissemination of the all moral forces—human love—an addition to any library. Many subjects therein to be sold at Kackley's at $1.

MARRIAGE

In High Life Under the Seal of Secrecy

That the names of the parties married at the Central Presbyterian Church Wednesday night after prayer-meeting are not given to the public is no fault of THE LEDGER, as every possible effort was made to procure the facts in the case, but it was no good, as everybody who witnessed the affair was bound by solemn promise not to give the marriage away.

The best The Ledger Scribe could do was to ascertain that the bride and groom were handsome and of the 400 of somewhere in Ohio and that they met here by appointment.

What is nicer early in the spring than a nice dish of greens? What is more desirable during the Christmas shopping season than a special sale of new and stylish articles at marvelously low prices? We herewith announce an extraordinary sale on Library and Morris Chairs. This sale will last "BE GREENS FOR YOU" if you are a prudent shopper. The immense value of this special offering is so apparent that the amateur as well as the professional shopper is spellbound. LOOK ALWAYS FOR THE REASON. We bought heavily on these beauties and when the wagons began hauling them Saturday we discovered that we bought too heavy for the limited business of a territory this size. So we must sell all of the Morris and Library Chairs that we sold.

Elmer Hill, Alleged Murderer and Ravisher, Strung Up by a Mob

Elmer Hill, the white man accused of murdering 13-year-old Mary Womack, who was on her way to school in Adair county, was taken from the Monticello Jail Wednesday night and hung by a mob.

It was planned at the time to burn Hill at the stake, allowing the child's mother to apply the match.

The mob without efforts at deception rode into Monticello, as had been expected by those who had watched events. It is said they did not wear masks. The Jailer was the only officer at the Jail. The mob called for the delivery of Hill and when the Jailer did not act as quickly as they thought he should, they broke the door in and rushed to Hill's cell. They dragged him forth, with the prisoner protesting his innocence and begging that no harm be done him. The mob did not answer his pleadings, but placed him on the back of a horse and took him to Greasy creek.

Hill was told that he was a doomed man, that he had but a few minutes to live, that if he failed to confess he would die with a lie on his lips. He then confessed that he had met the girl on the way to school, had strangled, assaulted and killed her.

No shots were fired into his body and no acts committed other than the lynching. When this had been done, the mob rode away quietly in the direction they had come. The body was cut down the next morning. It is believed that several of the men were named by the Jailer, but not confirmed. The Jailer was charged, but old Mary county ing chol his the Gaiety Theatre the other day a man walked up to the box office and said: "Give me two orchestra seats for the 'Traveling Salesman' for Thanksgiving Day. 'Very sorry,' was the reply, 'we haven't a seat left.'" "Well, how about Christmas?" was the next inquiry. "They are also gone," said the box-office man. "Anything for New Year's?" "Same thing," was the rejoinder. "If that's the case," said the buyer, "I suppose there's no use of asking for Washington's Birthday or Decoration Day, and there's nothing left for me to do but take a chance on the Fourth of July. Can you fix me up for that?"

THOMAS THROOP

Yesterday afternoon a Angeles, California, announce the Mr. Thomas Throop Browning, youngest of Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Browning of this cit.
Dr. Browning was aware of the critical illness of his boy and his illness was doubly afflicting on account of the fact that Thomas was too ill to attempt the long journey of 3,000 miles back home to Maysville. The young man was a sufferer from tuberculosis and on being prostrated at Los Angeles was placed in a Hospital, where every attention was shown him in his last hours, which is at least consoling to his distressed parents.

Thomas was an energetic and promising young man, who, since he left Maysville, had traveled extensively all over the Pacific ocean, having a lucrative position on one of the big steamers of the Orient. He was 34 years of age and was born in Fleming county.

Besides his devoted parents, Thomas leaves one brother, Mr. Clint M. Browning of this city.

He was a grandson and namesake of the late Colonel Thomas Throop of Flemingsburg.

City Attorney W. B. Matthews, Jr., of Los Angeles, a former resident of Maysville and a friend of the dead young man, wired the sad news of his death and has taken charge of his remains.

No details of his funeral and burial have been given out, as no arrangements have been made at this time.

OS NOT WORDS.

Maysville People Have Absolute Proof
of Deeds at Home.

It's not words but deeds that prove true merit.

The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills
For Maysville kidney sufferers
Have made their local reputation.
Proof lies in the testimony of Maysville people who have been cured to stay cured.

William H. Paul, 333 East Third Street
Maysville, Ky., says:

"My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills has not changed since I first recommended them several years ago, and the statement I gave in their favor at that time still holds good. Before I learned of their merit I was bothered considerably by pains in my back and other symptoms of disordered kidneys. After doctoring unsuccessfully I was induced to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial, procuring them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore. They promptly and effectively cured me, and I did not have a return of the difficulty until a short time ago. At that time I again resorted to Doan's Kidney Pills, and, as in the first case, they thoroughly removed every sign of the trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents.
